West Yorkshire Community Chaplaincy Project

How does Community Chaplaincy help? In lots of ways! On this page, people who have been supported by West Yorkshire Community Chaplaincy Project tell the story in their own words:

“My key worker has helped me with a multitude of things from housing to my debt problems. So now I don't get any threatening letters.”

“They helped me feel good about myself, helped on numerous occasions with social and housing issues. A volunteer helped me by being a friend and giving me support when I was lost and unhappy.”

“Has helped me with lots of stuff like housing, offending, drug rehabilitation and general support, mental health, benefits.”

“He has helped and supported me since I first met him when I was in prison and continue after prison. He advice and encourage me to get job and do courses. WYCCP volunteer has supported me while I was going through court hearing and also has supported me to fill application forms.”

“Helped me to move on.”

“Since having [WYCCP's support] my whole life has changed. I cannot in one sentence or even paragraph indent on anyone how invaluable [it] has been to my whole centrifugal wellbeing. If you had to be summed up in one word, that word would be, simply platinum.”

“Helped me with my medical appointments, also with sorting my benefits as well as helping me sort out the house I live in as nothing worked. To be honest, you have done all I could ask for.”

“Helped me with my confidence by explaining how to go about day to day things.”

“Got me on courses, got me in a stable state of mind.”

“I was very doubtful I would stay out of prison for longer than 3 months but with [WYCCP's] help I have stayed out of jail for the longest period I every have and I'm NOT GOING BACK.”

“He gave me self-worth, helped with debt, came along to important appointments, supported me with good advice when I asked for it, came along to a flat view, spoke with me around my future training options. WYCCP have helped and supported me in a way no-one else has, also lots of the right info. I liked being around everyone. I have problems getting along with people at the best of times and I can't fall out with anyone at WYCCP.”
